

St. Michael & All Angels

An Advent Service of Lessons and Carols

December 5, 2021

The "O" Antiphon Service

An Advent Service Based on the “O” Antiphons

The service of Nine Lessons & Carols is one associated with King’s College, Cambridge, dating back to the late 1800s, and has traditionally been sung here at St. Michael’s every year in December. The service tells the story of the birth of Jesus through biblical readings, hymns, and choral anthems.

This year, instead of “Nine” Lessons & Carols, we are focusing on Advent (rather than Christmas) stories by incorporating the framing device of the seven “O” Antiphons, which date back to the 6th century monastic tradition. Each antiphon uses imagery from the Hebrew scriptures that are historically associated by Christians with the Messiah or Christ. Each explores an aspect of the coming Reign of Christ in righteousness, justice and equity.

Using a musical setting by Peter Hallock (1924-2014), the choir will introduce each reading with one of these “O” antiphons, so named because each one begins with “O” (e.g. “O Wisdom,” “O Root of Jesse,” “O Emmanuel,” etc.). You will hear each antiphon first chanted in Latin with handbells, and then sung in English by the full choir with organ as an introduction to the chosen reading, followed by a relevant choral anthem and/or a hymn. We finish the evening with the singing of “O come, O come, Emmanuel,” the most well-known paraphrase of the seven O Antiphons.

The structure of this Advent Lessons & Carols service based on the O Antiphons was devised by Peter Hallock and his colleagues in the 1980s at St. Mark’s Cathedral in Seattle. We hope you will enjoy this new take on our beloved yearly service of Lessons & Carols.

St. Michael & All Angels, located in Multnomah County, rests on the traditional homelands of the Multnomah, Kathlamet, Clackamas, Molalla, Tumwater, Watlala bands of the Chinook, the Tualatin Kalapuya, and many other indigenous nations of the Columbia River. We acknowledge the ancestors of this place and understand that we are here because of the sacrifices forced upon them. By recognizing these communities, we honor their legacy, their lives, and their descendants.

St Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church acknowledges the gifts of sacred music written by African Americans, indigenous peoples and all people of color. This music enriches our liturgies, and we are grateful for these musicians. Music of oppressed cultures has been appropriated by the dominant culture without an appreciation of the pain and suffering experienced by its creators. We repent and commit to the work of racial justice and ending racism.

INTROIT

Creator of the stars of night

Conditior alme siderum

Creator of the stars of night,
Your people's everlasting light,
O Christ, Redeemer of us all,
We pray You, hear us when we call.

At Your great name, O Jesus, now
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow;
All things on earth with one accord.
Like those in heaven, shall call You Lord.

When this old world drew on toward night.
You came, but not in splendor bright.
Not as a monarch, but the child
Of Mary, blameless mother mild.

HYMN 65

Prepare the way, O Zion

Bereden väg för Herren

1 Pre - pare the way, O Zi - on, your Christ is draw - ing near!
2 He brings God's rule, O Zi - on; he comes from heaven a - bove.
3 Fling wide your gates, O Zi - on; your Sa - vior's rule em - brace.

Let ev - ery hill and val - ley a lev - el way ap - pear.
His rule is peace and free - dom, and jus - tice, truth, and love.
His tid - ings of sal - va - tion pro - claim in ev - ery place.

Greet One who comes in glo - ry, fore - told in sa - cred sto - ry.
Lift high your praise re - sound - ing, for grace and joy a - bound - ing.
All lands will bow be - fore him, their voic - es will a - dore him.

Refrain
Oh, blest is Christ that came in God's most ho - ly name.

Words: Frans Mikael Franzen (1772-1847); tr. composite; adapt. Charles P. Price (1920-1999)

Music: Bereden väg för Herren, melody from Then Svenska Psalmboken, 1697; harm. Koralbok för Svenska Kyrkan, 1939, alt.

Bidding Prayer

Dear friends in Christ, in stillness and quiet we have gathered again at this Advent season, a season of waiting upon the Lord, who once came in the flesh as Savior and Redeemer of the world, and who will come again in glorious majesty to establish a rule of justice, peace and righteousness for all the earth.

Let us listen carefully to the readings which prophesied the first coming of “Emmanuel - God with us.” And in remembering the promises fulfilled in the past, find within ourselves a renewed sense of the presence of the one whose life and kingdom dwell in us.

Let us also pray for a renewed vision of God's reign, that through our ministries and works the ancient prophecies may again be fulfilled in our time. And through our passionate commitment to the poor and the oppressed, the sick and the destitute, prisoners and hostages, the forgotten and the outcast, we may hear, see, and know God's gracious rule both within our hearts and in the common life of our society.

May God give us ears to hear, minds to perceive and understand, and hearts ready to receive the Redeemer.

And now, let us pray in the words which Christ our Savior has taught us, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory.
for ever and ever. Amen.

May God bless us with grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and to the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all. Amen.

Sapientia
Wisdom

ANTIPHON 1

Peter R. Hallock (1924-2014)

O Sapientia, que ex ore Altissimi prodisti, attingens a fine usque ad finem, fortiter suaviter disponensque omnia: veni ad docendum nos viam prudentiae.

O Wisdom, You came forth from the mouth of the Most High, and reach from one end of the earth to the other, mightily and sweetly ordering all things: Come and teach us the way of prudence.

O virtus sapientiae

Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179)

*O virtus sapientiae
 quae circuiens circuisti comprehendendo omnia
 in una via, quae habet vitam
 tres alas habens,
 quarum una in altum volat,
 et altera de terra sudat,
 et tertia undique volat.
 Laus tibi sit, sicut te decet,
 O Sapientia.*

O strength of Wisdom
 who, circling, circled, enclosing all
 in one lifegiving path,
 three wings you have:
 one soars to the heights,
 one distills its essence upon the earth,
 and the third one is everywhere.
 Praise to you, as is fitting,
 O Wisdom.

(tr. Kate Quartano Brown)

COLLECT

O Wisdom, your words uttered in the beginning generated a world of beauty and goodness, giving purpose and value to each creature: instruct us in the way of prudence that we may nurture the world with justice and joy, that its beauty and goodness may flourish; through the one whom we know as the Wisdom of the Ages, even Christ our Lord. Amen.

Adonai

Lord of Might

ANTIPHON 2

Hallock

O Adonai, et Dux domus Israel, qui Moysi in igne flammae rubi apparuisti, et ei in Sina legem dedisti: veni ad redimendum nos in brachio extento.

O Adonai, ruler of the house of Israel. You appeared to Moses in the fire of the burning bush; on Mount Sinai you gave him your law: with outstretched arm, come and redeem us.

O Adonai, Master of the universe and ruler of the house of Israel, your mighty acts have rescued remnants of your people from the midst of slavery, exile, war and holocaust: raise your scepter over us that the condition of human dignity may be extended to all people, in all places; for the sake of him whom we know as Lord of all, even Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Radix Jesse Root of Jesse

ANTIPHON 3

Hallock

O radix Jesse, que stas in signum populorum, super quem continebunt reges os suum, quem gentes deprecabuntur: veni ad liberandum nos, jam noli tardare.

O root of Jesse, you stand as an ensign to the peoples; before you kings shall keep silence, all nations bow in worship: Come and save us and do not delay.

Jesus Christ the apple tree

Elizabeth Poston (1905-1987)

The tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit and always green:
The trees of nature fruitless be
Compared with Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel:
By faith I know, but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see
In Jesus Christ the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all; but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.

I'm weary with my former toil,
Here I will sit and rest awhile:
Under the shadow I will be,
Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

ANTHEM

E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come

Paul Manz (1919-2009)

Peace be to you and grace from him
Who freed us from our sins
Who loved us all, and shed his blood
That we might saved be.

Sing Holy, Holy to our Lord
The Lord Almighty God
Who was and is, and is to come
Sing Holy, Holy Lord.

Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell therein
Rejoice on earth, ye saints below
For Christ is coming, Is coming soon
For Christ is coming soon.

E'en so Lord Jesus quickly come
And night shall be no more
They need no light, no lamp, nor sun
For Christ will be their All!
