

ST. MICHAEL & ALL ANGELS

11:00 AM HOLY EUCHARIST

Psalm 67, Stushie Art, 2022

THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 22, 2022

A PRAYER FOR TRANSITION

COMPASSIONATE CREATOR,

You have journeyed with your people since ancient times, once with pillars of cloud and fire, and later through prophetic visions and promises of a future. Finally, you sent your Holy Spirit to reveal the truth that leads to abundant life.

Give us wisdom and discernment as we listen to the Christ in one another and as we imagine the spiritual leadership we will need to guide the community of St. Michael & All Angels to the future you have in mind for us.

Through Christ our Savior. Amen

St. Michael & All Angels, located in Multnomah County, rests on the traditional homelands of the Multnomah, Kathlamet, Clackamas, Molalla, Tumwater, Watlala bands of the Chinook, the Tualatin Kalapuya, and many other indigenous nations of the Columbia River. We acknowledge the ancestors of this place and understand that we are here because of the sacrifices forced upon them. By recognizing these communities, we honor their legacy, their lives, and their descendants.

St Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church acknowledges the gifts of sacred music written by African Americans, indigenous peoples and all people of color. This music enriches our liturgies, and we are grateful for these musicians. Music of oppressed cultures has been appropriated by the dominant culture without an appreciation of the pain and suffering experienced by its creators. We repent and commit to the work of racial justice and ending racism.

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

New Zealand Prayer Book

You, O God, are supreme and holy. You create our world and give us life. Your purpose overarches everything we do. You have always been with us. You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous, good beyond all measure. You came to us before we came to you. You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ, who lived and died and rose again. You are with us now. You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit. You empower us to be your gospel in the world. You reconcile and heal; you overcome death. You are our God. We worship you.

The Deacon introduces the Prayers of the People

THE HOLY COMMUNION

AT THE OFFERTORY

Peace like a river

African-American Spiritual
arr. Mack Wilberg (b. 1955)

I've got peace like a river in my soul.
I've got faith like a river in my soul.
I've got hope like a river in my soul.
I've got love like a river in my soul.

HOLY COMMUNION

Presider God dwells in you.

People And also in you.

Presider Come to the table with thankful hearts

People We open our hearts to God and to one another.

The Presider continues:

Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life. And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, San - to, san - to, san - to, es el Se - ñor: Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.
 Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras. — Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. — Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras. Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras. Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras.

Setting: Kevin P. Joyce

Presider From your love and in your image you created us, breathing your spirit into the dust of the earth. When we failed to live in love, you loved us anyway, refusing to let us go. In Jesus of Nazareth you showed us what we might become. In miracle and mystery Jesus was born, as we are born, and lived as we might live. In the fullness of his life, Jesus revealed the self-centeredness of our lives. So we sought to silence him. But we could not. The resurrection and ascension revealed the indestructible power of God's inexhaustible love.

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. He took a loaf of bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my body that I share with you. Remember me whenever you eat, and offer your food and yourselves to the world."

After supper, Jesus took a cup of wine. When he had blessed it, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant of forgiveness that I share with you and with all. Remember me whenever you drink, and forgive."

All Now, gracious God, we offer our thanks for this bread and wine, the fruit of field and vine, and the body and blood of self-offering and compassion. We pray that the presence of your Holy Spirit will sanctify our meal, that we, like Christ, may love, heal, forgive and speak truth to all people. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Fa-ther in heav-en hal-low-ed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in heav-en. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of tri-al and deliv-er us from e-vil. For the king-dom, the power, and the glo-ry are yours, now and for-ev-er. A-men.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Forum today

The last hybrid forum in the Rev. Dr. Caroline Litzenberger's History Sunday series will be offered this Sunday at 10:15 am. It will continue answering the question, "How did the Elizabethan Church become the Church of today?" It will discuss Treasures from the Medieval Church, Anglicanism, the Prayer Book of 1979 and challenges facing the current Episcopal Church. Meet in the Nativity Hall, or check your eblast for the Zoom link.

Reckoning with Racism Liturgy

Next Sunday, May 29, the St. Michael's Reckoning with Racism (RwR) group (formed in 2020) and clergy invite you to join us in a liturgy to experience our baptismal covenant more deeply and better understand our responsibility as Episcopalians to see and dismantle the systems that perpetuate racism. We look forward to sharing this experience with you.

The Reckoning with Racism group invites you to forums on May 29 and a date to be determined in June for sharing of the St. Michael's land story and stories from parishioners. Please check your eblast and the website to learn much more about the group's work. .

Transition survey

The Profile Committee is conducting a parish-wide survey in order to help them write the profile to use in the search for our new rector. You can take it online through the link in the eblast, or you can pick up a paper copy in either English or Spanish at the Welcome Table in the Gallery. You can also contact Barb Miller if you need to have a paper copy mailed to you. However you choose to do it, please participate in the survey. It is your opportunity to tell the Profile and Search Committees, as well as the vestry, what you like about St. Michael's, what ministries you participate in and what qualities you want to see in our new rector. Please respond and be part of the process of creating the future of St. Michael's. The final date to submit your survey is June 5.
