

ST. MICHAEL & ALL ANGELS

11:00 AM HOLY EUCHARIST

“placing yourself in god’s story, among the heroes of the faith on the arena rail...”, emerging church festival in Cheltenham, England, 2007

THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 2, 2022

A PRAYER FOR TRANSITION

COMPASSIONATE CREATOR,

You have journeyed with your people since ancient times, once with pillars of cloud and fire, and later through prophetic visions and promises of a future. Finally, you sent your Holy Spirit to reveal the truth that leads to abundant life.

Give us wisdom and discernment as we listen to the Christ in one another and as we imagine the spiritual leadership we will need to guide the community of St. Michael & All Angels to the future you have in mind for us.

Through Christ our Savior. Amen

St. Michael & All Angels, located in Multnomah County, rests on the traditional homelands of the Multnomah, Kathlamet, Clackamas, Molalla, Tumwater, Watlala bands of the Chinook, the Tualatin Kalapuya, and many other indigenous nations of the Columbia River. We acknowledge the ancestors of this place and understand that we are here because of the sacrifices forced upon them. By recognizing these communities, we honor their legacy, their lives, and their descendants.

St Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church acknowledges the gifts of sacred music written by African Americans, indigenous peoples and all people of color. This music enriches our liturgies, and we are grateful for these musicians. Music of oppressed cultures has been appropriated by the dominant culture without an appreciation of the pain and suffering experienced by its creators. We repent and commit to the work of racial justice and ending racism.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

PRAYERS FOR AN INCLUSIVE CHURCH

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

People Lord of the growing seed, you reach to the roots of our being and quench our sea-deep thirst: help us to know ourselves through the eyes of the other who calls us to answer and serve and, in the end, be filled; through Jesus Christ, the Master of the Table. Amen.

*School-age children are invited to the Children's Liturgy of the Word to hear stories about the Good News of God's love.
Children return to their families at the Peace.*

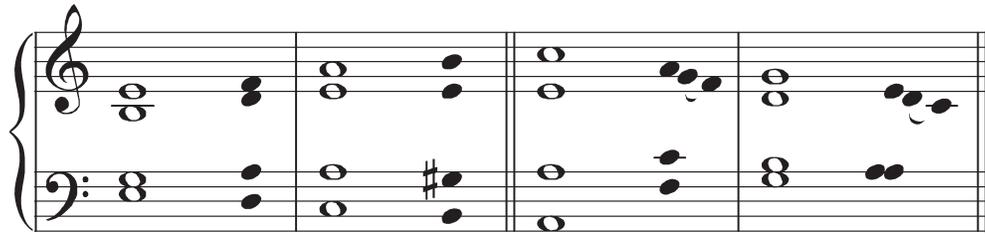

THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4 read by Marili Reilly.

The prophet bitterly complains to the Lord about the injustice and violence in the world. God answers that justice will come in time; meanwhile, the righteous will live by faithfulness and loyalty.

The reader concludes Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

1. Do not fret yourself because of evil-|doers;
do not be jealous of those who do | wrong.
2. For they shall soon wither like the | grass,
and like the green grass fade a-|way.
3. Put your trust in the LORD and do | good;
dwell in the land and feed on its | riches.
4. Take delight in the | LORD,
and God shall give you your heart's de-|sire.
5. Commit your way to the LORD and put your trust in | God,
and God will bring it to | pass.
6. The LORD will make your righteousness as clear as the | light and your just dealing as the | noonday.
7. Be still before the | LORD
and wait patiently for | God.
12. But the lowly shall possess the | land;
they will delight in abundance of | peace.

THE SECOND READING 2 Timothy 1:1-14 read by Jana Gregory

The opening letter of Paul to his friend and coworker Timothy, whom he keeps always in his prayers.

The reader concludes Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

standing

Alleluia

Setting: Fintan O'Carroll and Christopher Walker

GOSPEL: Luke 17:5-10

Jesus tells his disciples of faith's great power, and reminds them that servants must not expect special privileges or thanks merely for doing their duty.

At the announcement of the Gospel, the People respond Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The reader concludes The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION repeat Alleluia

SERMON Fan into Flame the Gift of God within You The Rev. Sherman Hesselgrave

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH standing

We are not alone, we live in God's world.

We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to live our lives as Jesus, our hope, has taught us. In life, in death, in life beyond death,

God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE remain standing

The Deacon or Celebrant introduces the prayers and concludes:

In faith and with hope and thanksgiving, let us offer our prayers, saying,
Loving God, Awaken us to your presence and grace.

Leader We remember St Francis, who gladly renounced the vanities of this world and delighted in the whole of creation, and pray for those who live by his rule of life.

Silence, during which petitions may be added

Loving God,...

Leader I ask your prayers for the Church Universal:

We pray especially for The Anglican Church of Canada, and in our own diocese, for the clergy and people of St John's, Bandon and St Bartholomew's, Beaverton; for churches around the globe celebrating World Communion Sunday today; for the work of St Michael's Search Committee.
Pray for the Church.

Silence

Loving God,...

Leader I ask your prayers for our nation and for those in authority, and for all the nations of the world:
We pray for the United Nations, and all diplomats and leaders working for peace and cooperation among nations; for those making war, that their hearts and minds be swayed; for peace and patience in our own country as we approach the general elections.

Pray for the nations.

Silence

Loving God,...

Leader I ask your prayers for those who are sick or who are about to receive distressing medical news; for those with dates for surgery, and for those recuperating; for those in hospice and those with a short time to live; and for those who are grieving.
Pray for those who suffer and those in any trouble.

Silence
Loving God,...

Leader I ask your prayers for those who have died, especially, [_____ , and] those whom we name before you, silently or aloud.

Silence
Loving God,...

Leader In solidarity with our Jewish brothers and sisters, who will observe the Day of Atonement, this week, we confess, on behalf of ourselves and our neighbors:

All Who among us is blameless? Who shall say: “I have not erred; I have not wronged or sinned”? We abuse, we brutalize, we covet, we deceive, we enslave, we feud, we gossip, we humiliate, we injure, we judge unfairly, we kill, we lie, we manipulate, we neglect, we ostracize, we plagiarize, we quarrel, we rage, we shame, we turn away, we undermine, we vilify, we waste, we exploit the earth, we yearn too much for yesterday—and too easily forget Zion.

Our sins are an alphabet of woe. Help us, Holy One, to follow your ways of integrity, justice, and love. Teach us to seek forgiveness with humility and an open heart. Amen.

The Presider concludes with a collect.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

All God’s mercy endures for ever. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

A WORD OF WELCOME, BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

A PRAYER FOR BIRTHDAYS

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

*Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome to receive communion at this table. If you’d like to receive the bread, please extend your hands out. If you need a gluten free wafer, please let us know as you receive. If you’d like to come forward, but prefer a blessing in place of the bread or the wine, please cross your arms across your chest.
If you wish to use intinction please ask for a wafer.*

THE HOLY COMMUNION

AT THE OFFERTORY

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

I will kindle my fire

Mary Truly Ermev

I will kindle my fire in the morn of the day,
in the presence of holy angels.
Without malice or jealousy, envy or fear,
without terror of anyone under the sun,
but the Holy Beloved to shield me.
O Holy one, kindle thou here in my heart,
a flame of pure love to my neighbor,
to my foe, to my friend, to my kindred all,
to the brave, to the knave, to the thrall.
O child of the loveliest Mary,
from the lowliest thing, to the Holy Name,
the beloved of all.

from the Carmina Gadelica, a 19th century compendium of traditional Scottish texts

HOLY COMMUNION

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues:

God of blessing, we thank you always for making us in your image to serve the peace of all creation. You shared your name with our mothers and fathers: Sarah and Abraham, who left their home and became a blessing to all nations; Moses and Miriam, who went through sea and wilderness to the place of revelation; Deborah and Samson, who gave hope and justice to a people ruled by fear; Ruth and Jonah, who went to foreign soil and found God who loves the stranger.

From our ancestors in faith came Jesus, the son of promise to fulfill the law, embody your love and draw all people to himself.

He accepted death to break its fearful hold; he was raised to life to share it in abundance; he comes again to break the bread and pour the wine of hope.

Therefore, with all the people whose story you have shaped, with women and men of faith in every part of the world we glory in your generous love and sing in praise of you:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly ho - ly Lord God of hosts.

Heav - en and earth are filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is He who comes in the name

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "of the Lord, of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est". The music features a mix of chords and melodic lines, with some notes held over from one measure to the next.

Setting: Grayson Warren Brown

Presider

We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our brother and Savior, Jesus Christ; who, on the night that he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom. Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, to remember me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died

Christ is risen

Christ will come again.

Therefore we come in memory and hope, responding to your call and the promise that echoes from the dawn of all time.

May mind and heart be held by your self-giving love as we stand before the cross, approach the empty tomb and praise the one whose name is lifted high above all earthly dominions and principalities.

Receive our broken offering through his all-powerful grace and bind us in communion with all who share your gifts; through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all the worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of the Holy Trinity.

AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours.
now and for ever. Amen.

GOING FORTH

BLESSING OF PRAYER SHAWLS

Presider Let us pray.

All May God's grace be upon these shawls, created with prayers for comfort, healing and well-being. May each mantle be a safe haven, a sacred place. May those embraced by these shawls feel upheld by unseen hands, be strengthened on their way and encircled with God's love in all things. Amen.

SENDING OUT OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Presider In the name of this congregation we send you forth to share this Eucharist with N.

All You carry the prayers of us all as you take this Sacrament of Christ's presence. May those who receive it be strengthened and encouraged in the life we find together in our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY

Presider Let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world, and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Save the Date!

Save the date! Join us for our first Choral Evensong since before the pandemic on Wednesday, October 19 at 7pm. The choir is preparing Stanford's Magnificat & Nunc dimittis in G, Henry Balfour Gardiner's "Evening Hymn," and lots more! This beautiful, traditional service will last less than an hour and is a chance to immerse yourself in the familiar Anglican structure and music-filled resonance of Evensong.

Soup & Sing!

Children, families, parents, and singers of all ages are invited to join us at St. Michael's on Wednesday, October 12 at 5:30pm as we eat a simple meal and then sing together! After our soup supper in the Parish Hall, Choir Director Brian Fairbanks will lead us in song. We'll sing hymns, familiar tunes, and perhaps gain some new favorites, too! This intergenerational event is particularly suited to young people (and their families) who are interested in our youth choir program, the Choristers. Adult choir members are welcome to join in, too, as we make music together for fun! We'll wrap up the evening no later than 6:45pm. Let us know if you're coming so we can prepare enough soup. :)

Reckoning with Racism Sunday

Special readings and music at 9:00 & 11:00. The St. Michael's Reckoning with Racism (RwR) group (and clergy) invite you to join us in a liturgy to experience our baptismal covenant more deeply and better understand our responsibility as Episcopalians to see and dismantle the systems that perpetuate racism. You are also invited to attend the Forum at 10:15 and participate in an exploration of themes from the liturgy.

Forum for October 16

Outreach & Justice Forum with speaker Alan Evans from Bybee Lakes Hope Center. Alan founded the organization after being homeless and addicted for 27 years. The programs offered are Trauma-Informed, Data-Driven, and Person-Centered. BLHC serves men, women, and families. Please join us in the Nativity Hall, or through your connection at home!

Youth Group Today!

Youth Group will meet today from 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm at the Church. This will be both a parent and youth meeting. We will have the Middle School, High School, and parents meet separately during this time as we discuss what everyone wants our Youth Group to look and feel like this year. We will provide dinner and games too of course. We will also be discussing the Mission Trip for summer 2023.

Columbarium expansion plans

Members of the Columbarium Work Group, chaired by Fr. John Scannell, have already met with clergy, staff and the Altar Guild, to provide drawings and receive input on these proposed changes. These changes would more than double the existing capacity. At present, there is no space available in the existing columbarium.

Members of the Work Group will meet with parishioners at the Ministry Fair between the 9:00 and 11:00 o'clock services on Sundays Oct. 2nd and Oct. 9th.

Ministry Fair

As we turn the corner into fall, and the wonderful opportunities ahead during this season, all of Saint Michaels is welcome and encouraged to join us for the ministry fairs on October 2, and October 9 between the nine and 11 o'clock services during the forum hour. Our ministry leaders will share powerful stories of what is changing in the life of our parish, and in their personal calls to serve Jesus in our church and our neighborhood. We hope that you will join us to hear these stories, and to consider how you are called this year into new forms of relationship and service throughout our parish. You'll be invited to sign up for opportunities to serve in the gallery, as well as to be encouraged and inspired!
