

ST. MICHAEL & ALL ANGELS

9:00 AM HOLY EUCHARIST

Prophecy of the Destruction of the Temple, James Tissot, 1886-1894

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
NOVEMBER 13, 2022

A PRAYER FOR TRANSITION

COMPASSIONATE CREATOR,

You have journeyed with your people since ancient times, once with pillars of cloud and fire, and later through prophetic visions and promises of a future. Finally, you sent your Holy Spirit to reveal the truth that leads to abundant life.

Give us wisdom and discernment as we listen to the Christ in one another and as we imagine the spiritual leadership we will need to guide the community of St. Michael & All Angels to the future you have in mind for us.

Through Christ our Savior. Amen

St. Michael & All Angels, located in Multnomah County, rests on the traditional homelands of the Multnomah, Kathlamet, Clackamas, Molalla, Tumwater, Watlala bands of the Chinook, the Tualatin Kalapuya, and many other indigenous nations of the Columbia River. We acknowledge the ancestors of this place and understand that we are here because of the sacrifices forced upon them. By recognizing these communities, we honor their legacy, their lives, and their descendants.

St Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church acknowledges the gifts of sacred music written by African Americans, indigenous peoples and all people of color. This music enriches our liturgies, and we are grateful for these musicians. Music of oppressed cultures has been appropriated by the dominant culture without an appreciation of the pain and suffering experienced by its creators. We repent and commit to the work of racial justice and ending racism.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE remain standing

The Presider introduces the prayers and concludes:

Today we give thanks for the labor, influence, financial support, and expertise offered by members of the community to the ongoing mission and ministries of St Michael's/San Miguel, and rejoice, praying:

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

Leader I ask your prayers for the Church everywhere:

We pray especially for Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui, and in our own diocese, for St Michael/San Miguel, Newberg and St Stephen, Newport; for the Search Committee as they interview finalists; and for stewardship education throughout the Church:

Pray for the Church.

Silence, during which petitions may be added

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

Leader I ask your prayers for the welfare of the world:

For the United Nations Climate Change conference in Egypt, that nations will become more engaged with efforts to slow global warming; for journalists around the world, who risk their lives to share the truth; for refugees seeking a new life, and for all forced to leave their homelands:

Pray for the world.

Silence

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

Leader I ask your prayers for our nation:

We pray especially for all service members and veterans of the U. S. Armed Forces; for newly elected officials, that they may fulfil their duties faithfully; for all whose land is under threat, especially Indigenous Americans:

Pray for the nation.

Silence

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

Leader I ask your prayers for those who are sick or in trouble:
For those scheduled for surgery and for those learning of a new diagnosis; for all entering hospice or palliative care; for anyone living with conditions that have eluded identification:
Pray for those who suffer.

Silence

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

Leader I ask your prayers for those who have died, especially Mitch Oglesby and those whom we name before you, silently or aloud.
And pray for those who are grieving.

Silence

Loving God, may we live in justice and peace.

The Presider continues:

O God, the light of the minds that know you, the joy of the hearts that love you, and the strength of the wills that serve you: Grant us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whom to serve is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

A WORD OF WELCOME, BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

A PRAYER FOR BIRTHDAYS

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome to receive communion at this table. If you'd like to receive the bread, please extend your hands out. If you need a gluten free wafer, please let us know as you receive. If you'd like to come forward, but prefer a blessing in place of the bread or the wine, please cross your arms across your chest.

If you wish to use intinction please ask for a wafer.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

AT THE OFFERTORY

ANTHEM

We shall walk through the valley in peace

arr. Ronald Burrichter (b. 1941)

Sung by the tenors and basses of the choir

We shall walk through the valley of the shadow of Death.

There will be no sorrowing there.

We shall walk through the valley in peace.

There will be no sorrowing there.

And if Jesus himself shall be our leader,

And if Jesus himself shall be our leader,

we shall walk through the valley in peace.

we shall walk through the valley in peace.

HOLY COMMUNION

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues:

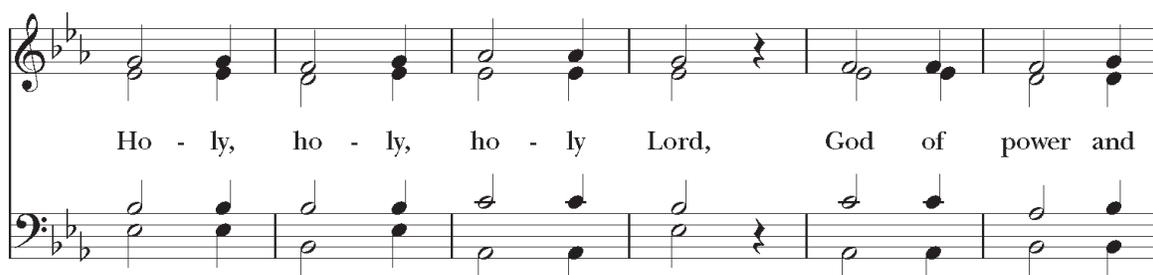

God of blessing, we thank you always for making us in your image to serve the peace of all creation. You shared your name with our mothers and fathers: Sarah and Abraham, who left their home and became a blessing to all nations; Moses and Miriam, who went through sea and wilderness to the place of revelation; Deborah and Samson, who gave hope and justice to a people ruled by fear; Ruth and Jonah, who went to foreign soil and found God who loves the stranger.

From our ancestors in faith came Jesus, the son of promise to fulfill the law, embody your love and draw all people to himself.

He accepted death to break its fearful hold; he was raised to life to share it in abundance; he comes again to break the bread and pour the wine of hope.

Therefore, with all those whose story you have shaped, with people of faith in every part of the world we glory in your generous love and sing in praise of you:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na

Setting: From Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert arr. Richard Proulx.

Presider We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our brother and Savior, Jesus Christ; who, on the night that he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom. Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, to remember me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died

Christ is risen

Christ will come again.

Therefore we come in memory and hope, responding to your call and the promise that echoes from the dawn of all time.

May mind and heart be held by your self-giving love as we stand before the cross, approach the empty tomb and praise the one whose name is lifted high above all earthly dominions and principalities.

Receive our broken offering through his all-powerful grace and bind us in communion with all who share your gifts; through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all the worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of the Holy Trinity.

AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory.

for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

AT THE FRACTION

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The time signature is common time (C). The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with block chords and moving bass lines. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line.

GOING FORTH

SENDING OUT OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Presider In the name of this congregation we send you forth to share this Eucharist with N.

All You carry the prayers of us all as you take this Sacrament of Christ's presence. May those who receive it be strengthened and encouraged in the life we find together in our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY

Presider Let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world, and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pledge card ingathering today & Nov. 20

We hope all of you have received your pledge card by now and have prayerfully discerned what you can contribute to the 2023 operating fund at St. Michael's. If possible, please bring your card this Sunday or next, when we will have formal ingatherings of our pledge cards. Some people have reported not receiving their card in the mail yet, but there are extras in the Narthex (or ask an usher) and also on the slat-wood board in the Gallery; or we're happy to mail you another one. Of course, you can make your wishes known by other means as well – mailing your card in or emailing our bookkeeper, Jackie Van Anda, at bookkeeper@stmaa.org. If you choose to pledge through the website, it would be helpful to also indicate your plans by filling out a card.

Search Update

The Search Committee has completed the first round of interviews with the candidates and are preparing for a second round. We'd like to thank all of you for participating in the listening sessions and the parish survey. The Profile Committee distilled your voices and vision into a beautiful document that clearly expressed who we are and what we seek in our next rector. All of the candidates have told us that our vision and values resonated deeply with them.

There are several more steps in the discernment process. We ask for your continued prayers – for the Search Committee, for the St. Michael's Vestry and for our candidates.

Music today

This Sunday, November 13, our 9:00 and 11:00 am services will be supported by the tenors and basses of the St. Michael's Singers, while the sopranos and altos have the morning off. Many of the hymns on Sunday hint either at the theme of stewardship (for our pledge card ingathering) or honoring our veterans for Veteran's Day on November 11.

Forum next Sunday

Next Sunday, November 20, our Outreach & Justice

Council is hosting a hybrid forum between the services entitled Together, We Can End Unsheltered Homelessness. Keith Wilson will be our guest speaker. Keith is a board member of Shelter Now, a Portland-based organization launched by the Interfaith Alliance on Poverty and Portland neighborhood association leaders whose goal is to advocate for the creation of a wide range of alternative shelters to address the immediate crisis in Portland's streets. All are welcome at 10:10 am in the Nativity Hall.

St. Michael's Choristers

The St. Michael's Choristers are teaming with Godly Play this fall as we gear up for Lessons & Carols and the Nativity Play. We will meet on Sundays at 10:00 am, beginning November 20, just prior to the start of Godly Play. Please join Brian Fairbanks in the Choir Room (downstairs), and we will learn songs, play musical games and prepare to sing for Lessons & Carols and the Play. Choristers will be dismissed to Godly Play directly from rehearsal. Our Choristers program is especially designed for children who can read easily and are in grades 2-3 through 8. For families who attend the 9:00 a.m. liturgy, Choristers are welcome to go downstairs following Communion; Brian will be doing the same! For any questions, please contact Brian Fairbanks (brianfairbanks34@gmail.com) or Hannah Brewer.

Opportunities to serve St. Michael's

This is an exceptional stewardship year, a year when we are living into our faith with hope and love as we experience changes at St. Michael's. As we consider what we will give of our treasure, let us also consider what we will give of our time.

At this moment, St. Michael's needs our help and commitment. We are seeking three people for the Endowment Committee, a new person to join Team L.I.F.E., one convention delegate and six people for the Vestry. Three of the Vestry members are needed for three-year terms and two for terms of one year. Watch for an general statement-of-interest form available soon.

Please reach out to one of your elected representatives, who are listed in your directory and also on the Vestry board in the Gallery. St. Michael's needs you!
