

THIS WEEK @ ST. MICHAEL'S

This Sunday at 10 am we enjoy another service full of your favorite hymns. Additionally, a summer pickup choir will offer an arrangement of the navy hymn "Eternal Father, strong to save" with the refrain "for those in peril on the sea," referencing the morning's gospel text as Jesus calms the stormy sea and miraculously walks on water. This summer choir opportunity is open to all (the anthem is easy!), and a perfect chance to check out what it's like to sing from the choir chairs and see if it inspires you to join one of our choirs in the fall. If you would like the music in advance, email Hannah at hannahb@stmaa.org. Otherwise, please gather in the chancel area at 9:30am on Sunday to learn the anthem together.

POPUP RECITAL | NATIVITY HALL | 11:15 AM
From pickup choir to pop-up recital... Directly after the 10 am service, join us in the Nativity Hall with your cup of coffee and cookie to listen to a variety of musical offerings performed by fellow congregants (kids and adults alike). The event is intended to be informal and relaxed.

MINISTRIES IN NEED

ALTAR GUILD is urgently seeking additional ministers to train and join a team to serve. Training happens over time, with lots of support from the other members of the team. If you are willing and interested, please contact Carolyn Eaton at joumana1@msn.com or The Rev. Scott Painter to set up a conversation.

OUR LIVE STREAM MINISTRY is seeking additional ministers to train and join the monthly schedule to serve. New team members learn to run the A/V equipment alongside experienced members as they stream regular Sunday services. If you are willing and interested in learning more, please contact Steve Walton at francophile1225@gmail.com or Matte Edey in the church office to set up a conversation.
